Scene 4

Back in the clouds.

Laughing, Eve walks over and sits next to Father Christmas and says “no need to frown”

Realising that the list are names of famous rockstars who have all died.

She looks at the presents and sees they are wrapped but shaped like guitars, microphones etc.

Eve says to Father Christmas they do exist but they are all in heaven! They have written to you because they want guitars and microphones, and that why they have no address’.

Scene 5 - Quiet part of song

Eve realises that Father Christmas (who hasn't died) can't deliver the presents himself in to Heaven.

(Eve has an idea.)

She says she's on her way to Heaven and will put the presents in her stockings and deliver them for Father Christmas instead .

By now the word is spreading round and there's much excitement in the angel/cherub community about Eve's gesture to deliver the presents into heaven.

Eve and Father Christmas fill up her stockings with presents.

Eve throws the stockings over her shoulder and sets off walking towards the pearly gates. As she does Father Christmas thanks her and asks "Oh by the way, what's your name?" she shouts "I'm called Eve". Father Christmas replies "MERRY CHRISTMAS EVE "

By this time there's lots more excitable cherubs/angels that have arrived to herald Eve's Entry into heaven.

She sets off towards the gates with the cherubs/angels escort her into heaven, all singing the Chorus "Merry Christmas Eve"

As she passes through the gates Eve gains her angel wings.

Scene 6

Once Eve arrives into heaven she hands out all the presents to the rock stars. Microphones for Amy Winehouse, Elvis Presley and Freddie Mercury. Guitars for Jimi Hendrix, Buddy Holly, Eddie Van Halen and John Lennon and they are all happy and jamming together as they've got the Christmas presents they asked for!
