

Big House Lyrics

I wanna live in our big house,
And follow you around for hours,
Until my shins are weak

And I'd drive for miles and miles and miles,
If only I had time to take the test and not fall asleep

I feel sick,
Writing this,
Be quick,
Apologies are weird,
When I'm the one who's wrong

And I,
Think i've not been trying,
Hiding under words,
I never thought i'd say to you

And you,
Haven't broke the silence,
'Cause nothings even in the air,
For us to reason through

Always bending the truth,
Always indebted to you

I wanna live inside your brain,
And take away the pain that gets you down,
After you wake

And even when you're not around,
You're the only thing that keeps me on the ground for heaven's sake

I feel sick,
Call me,
But be quick,
It's starting to get real,
'Cause i know how I feel

And I,
Think i've not been trying,
Hiding under words,
I never thought i'd say to you

And you,
Haven't broke the silence,

'Cause nothings even in the air,
For us to reason through

Always bending the truth,
Always indebted to you

And I,
Think i've not been trying,
Hiding under words,
I never thought i'd say to you

Always wishing on you

And you,
Haven't broke the silence,
'Cause nothings even in the air,
For us to even reason through

And we're,
Gonna build that big house,
So I can live those words,
Without my stomach turning blue

Always indebted to you,
Always indebted to you