

Rise

(Shana Halligan / Joey Verskotzi)

Dazed and confused
I lost my pride
Nothing to lose
Only time

But If you held me again
I know we could win
Stop waiting to die
Do you think I would lie
We must rise from the ashes
Cuz I know I know
I'm marching for change
Only to gain
your love once again
I can't live in this pain
I must rise from the ashes
Cuz I know
I'm your...

You played the tune
That shaped my mind
Day after day after day after day
You gave me life

But If you held me again
I know we could win
Stop waiting to die
Do you think I would lie
We must rise from the ashes
Cuz I know, I know
I'm marching for change
Only to gain
your love once again
I can't live in this pain
I must rise from the ashes
Cuz I know, I know
I'm your....

We must rise from the ashes
Cuz I know, I know
If you held me again
I know we could win
Stop waiting to die
Do you think I could lie
We must rise from the ashes
Cuz I know
I'm still your little girl
Help me rise from the ashes
