

Marco Polo

In Esperança around to India Vasco da Gama sailed and On Kon tiki to Polynesia Heyerdahl drifted 100 days

Marco Polo walked the silk road seeking Kubla Khan
and Vespucci sailed away to find Amerigo
As for me I sailed into the ocean of your mind when I discovered you

And I'll roam, roam, roam

From North Dakota, Shoshone prisoner Sacagawea roamed and Ida Pfeiffer would leave Vienna To wander the sands of the Holy Lands

There's a world of wonders in books and pictures But growing older was no adventure drifting in a one horse town

and Vespucci sailed away to find Amerigo
As for me I sailed into the ocean of your mind
when I discovered you

John Cabotto crossed the ocean to a New found land and Cousteau explored the world below the water Every day I look across the ocean of your mind I discover something new

And I'll roam, roam, roam

Marco polo walked the silk road but I've been travelling too Since I discovered you
